W. Tex., Oct. 6.—[Special.] night a bad man from Hitler in the town armed with a six shooter. After one of them taken from him he drew and shot Pedocin Lockett dead and got away. They found that his name was John today a warrant was issued. At 4 o'clock Sheriff Marshal Swaine, Police and Deputies Shepard went out to arrest him, found that he was practicing at a house on the farm, seven miles from here. They arrived about noon and surrounded the house and made a charge towards the house when the bad man got away. He turned 90 yards through the field, as he ran and marched on the ground, both sides following him. He is not expected through the night. He is believed to be a desperate criminal who has been the cause of the trouble for whom there
